

What is “Market?”

“Market” reflects the core geographical market for that business – the region in which it conducts the majority of its business.

It is measured from the company’s business address.